

Commuters Association Analyzes New Greyhound Schedule

Greyhound commuter service from Contra Costa County to San Francisco was improved Wednesday with additional service during morning and evening rush hours, according to John E. McKirahan of the Contra Costa County Commuters Association.

A new schedule was added leaving Concord at 6:55 a.m., Walnut Creek 7:11, Lafayette 7:21 and Orinda Corners at 7:29, arriving San Francisco at 8:10. An additional bus was added to the service operating from San Francisco to Concord between 4:30 p.m. and 5:20 p.m. daily, except Saturdays, Sunday and Holidays.

CHECK NEW SERVICE

A check of the new service Wednesday morning showed uneven passenger loading, with some empty seats. Emmitt Samon expressed his confidence that this condition would straighten itself out within a week and urged that the news of the additional service be spread by all means to acquaint the commuters with the readjusted schedules.

Further study will be made of the evening service, for which Greyhound provides a special stop in San Francisco near Second and Folsom streets where the majority of the commuters board the buses which originate at the Seventh street depot.

Here in the past the lineup each evening has at times been so great that passengers have had to wait for several buses to go by before they could board one.

MEET TUESDAY

The board of directors of the newly formed association met Tuesday evening at the home of George C. Tonkin in Orinda to review the results of their work by which the additional service was achieved, acknowledging the assistance of other community organizations.

The directors completed plans for organization and work, appointing committee chairmen who will select committeemen from the membership at large.

APPOINT CHAIRMEN

Emmitt M. Samon was appointed chairman of an executive committee empowered to meet and negotiate with the regulatory commission and transportation companies. President John Menns heads the membership committee which seeks to enroll all of the estimated 800 commuters now using the bus to San Francisco and Oakland plus the uncounted commuters who drive each way to work.

Irving Roemer was delegated to head a committee to draft by-laws. Donald Silliman heads the finance committee. McKirahan takes over publicity. K. S. Spoon is chairman of the nominating committee which will draw up a slate of officers for election at a general membership meeting in October.

STATISTICAL WORK

Frank Brigham is chairman of the statistical committee which will obtain data and analyze it, preparing recommendations for action by the executive committee.

Prospective members are urged to send their names and dues of 25 cents to John H. Menns, 408 Roberta Drive, Concord Route No. 1 or treasurer E. C. Nevins, 1022 Pleasant Valley Drive, Walnut Creek.

"The directors are requesting the endorsement and support of all community organizations toward the common end of improved transportation service for all the residents who travel to work in the Bay Area," McKirahan said.

OVER 200 MEMBERS

President John H. Menns, Concord, summarized the membership lists which show over 200 members already enrolled in the new association. The organization is the result of a resolution first presented at a community meeting in Walnut Creek on June 6, proposing that the association be formed to study transportation needs between Orinda, Lafayette,

Danville, Walnut Creek, Concord and neighboring districts to San Francisco and Oakland. Purpose of the group is to exercise the rights of the people in closer cooperation between transportation companies and the Public Utilities Commission. Membership is open to all commuters traveling by either common carrier or private conveyance. A statement from the board reads as follows:

"Need for such an organization was seen over a year ago when it was realized that the heavy increase of population was resulting in many more commuters who overcrowded the existing bus service, but additional facilities were not provided. Individual protests brought no response and plans were laid for a comprehensive organization which materialized at the informal meeting on June 6."

A board of directors was chosen, consisting of two representatives from each community: Orinda, George C. Tonkin and Emmitt

M. Samon; Lafayette, Irving C. Roemer and John E. McKirahan; Walnut Creek, Frank W. Brigham and Donald J. Silliman; Pleasant Hills, E. C. Nevins and K. S. Spoon; and Concord, John H. Menns and Edward F. Klick.

The board selected Menns for president, Nevins for treasurer and McKirahan for secretary.

Bad Check Artists Hit Bay Region; Merchants Warned

Businessmen in the area are warned to be on the watch for "bad check" artists, according to Inspector Norman Wilson of the Sheriff's department.

So far no bad checks have been passed in Lafayette or Orinda, Wilson reports, but the Bay Area has been flooded with checks that "bounce."

Most of the checks have been personal checks cashed in grocery stores and bars, Wilson said, and few of them have been pay checks. However, businessmen should be on the look-out for one operator who is using printed checks with the Barry Building Company heading on them and drawn on the Anglo California National Bank, East Oakland Branch. The checks are signed as if by E. D. Barry and are made out for $84 to $86 (plus some odd cents) to "C. W. Howard" or "D. A. Kane."

Wilson also advised area residents to notify the Sheriff's office if they plan to be away from their homes for several days. The Sheriff's Department will make periodic checks on residences while the owner is away, Wilson said.

Orinda Lions Club Inducts Officers

Officers for the coming year were inducted at the dinner-dance and ladies' evening program held at the Willows Monday evening by Orinda Lions Club.

Allen Crawford of Berkeley, past deputy district governor, was installing officer, with the following panel taking over for the new year: Carl Miller, president; Don Hunter, 1st vice president; Al Meggs, 2nd vice president; Ken Courtwright, 3rd vice president; C. P. McVicker, secretary-treasurer; Bill Wrdn, tail twister; Fred von Guenther, lion tamer; Walt Friberg, Joe Navone, Wayne Littlejohn and Bart McMahon as directors.

Perfect attendance for a five year period earned service pins for retiring president, George Hartzell, Sr., Al Meggs and Carl Miller. Many other members were awarded 100 per cent attendance pins.

A traveling bag and articles of fishing equipment were presented to Hartzell in appreciation of his leadership as president of the service club during the past year.

Two Orinda Dogs Poisoned

Several valuable dogs have died from poisoning recently in the Orinda area, according to autopsies performed.

A fine pointer belonging to M. E. Keyser, 15 El Verano was found dead of poisoning and an autopsy showed the poison to be either mercury or arsenic. It could not be determined whether the poisoning was due to malicious intent or was a rodent bait carelessly used without thought of consequences to children and pets.

Another dog, belonging to the O'Brien family, 40 Las Vegas, was poisoned two days before the Keyser dog.

Scholarships to Honor Ted Fry

In a stirring memorial tribute to Ted Fry, their former classmate who was killed in an automobile accident early Friday morning after graduation, Acalanes students gathered at the high school gymnasium to establish several living scholarship funds in his name.

John Klauder, former senior class president, presided over the meeting. The group, estimated at over 200 students, voted to establish a perpetual Courage Award in memory of Ted Fry to be awarded each year to an outstanding lineman in football. The Senior gift to the school of two $100 scholarships were changed to Ted Fry Memorial Scholarships. $176 collected from the students will be given to the Crippled Children's Fund in Ted's name.

Guests at the meeting were Mrs. Lynn O. Waldorf, a close family friend, and Ted's brother, Jim Fry. Also present were Miss Lily Lahti, Dean of Girls at Acalanes, Stanley Walgren, Dean of Boys, and Neil M. Parsons, principal of the school.

P. G. & E. Executive Leaves $1,315,740 Estate

Extensive land holdings in this county, Alameda, Fresno, Tulare and Kern Counties, stocks, bonds and bank accounts were included in the $1,315,740 estate left by A. Smory Wishon, according to the recent appraisal filed with County Clerk G. E. Wade.

Wishon, 65, died January 5, 1948, at his country home in Danville. He was executive vice-president of the Pacific Gas and Electric Company.

Sewer Contractor Speeds Up Work; Well-Marked Detours Prevent Isolation

More progress is reported on installation of sewer lines in Orinda, with residents in the affected areas satisfied the job is being handled quickly and completely.

North Lane is about completed at this time, with one section of Ardiilla finished and the other section now being worked on. Mariposa is listed as complete.

PREPARE FOR COMPLETION

Associated Electrical and Mechanical Company, contractors for this improvement district, are cleaning up all excess piles of dirt in preparation for the final paving which will mark completion of the job.

Claremont is to be started as is the lower section of El Toyonal. For the convenience of motorists,

Residents Urged to Check Condition of Local Roads

Neighborhood street checks before and following sewer installation, destroying of signs in the area, traffic and parking and the illegal dumping of rubbish were among matters given consideration at the meeting of Civic Affairs Committee at the Orinda fire house Monday evening.

The group voted to send a recommendation to the directing board of Orinda Association suggesting that all neighborhood improvement organizations form committees to make surveys of the present condition of roads before sewer contractors begin construction in their area. Photographs and diagrams of present road conditions were considered valuable as proof in case of any dissatisfaction with completed work.

FOR PROOF

As every local improvement district has the right of protest before the sanitary district board at hearings held before acceptance of completed sewer construction contracts, objections bolstered by this proof would carry weight, according to the discussion.

The recommendation will be presented the board of directors of Orinda Association at their meeting scheduled for Monday night.

Members of the committee condemned the practice of destroying street signs in Orinda following reports heard on the subject and will take steps to halt this vandalism.

TRAFFIC REPORT

Chairman Marvin Bonds presented a report on the work of a joint committee from Orinda Association and Better Business Association concerning solving of traffic and parking problems at Orinda crossroads.

In further discussion of road conditions, Mrs. George Vurek commended the sewer contractor for his consideration in accomplishing his work in the area near her home, with the least possible inconvenience to the neighborhood.

ROAD REPORT

Unfavorable reports were heard on the condition of thoroughfares where utility companies have made installations, many of the excavated trenches have sunk and caused poor road conditions. It was pointed out that contractors on these road jobs are usually bonded for a year following work completion and should be responsible for repairs.

Permission to hold Civic Affairs Committee meetings at the fire house will be requested of the fire commissioner following a vote of the members.

PROTEST TRASH DUMPING

A letter will be addressed to Supervisor Jack Cummings asking which county agency is responsible for preventing further dumping of trash and removal of the present litter near the intersection of Tunnel Road and Fish Ranch Road. Cummings will be requested to see that action is taken in removing this potential fire hazard.

It was announced that no meetings of the Committee would be held during July and August unless special problems arise calling for immediate action.

Park Pool Plans July 4th Party

Mrs. Doris Clifford, chairman of the Orinda Park Pool entertainment committee announces a program for July 4 at the Orinda Park Pool. The affair will be for members only.

At three o'clock, intra pool swimming races will be held. At 5:30 a community dinner (members bring their own food) will take place. Coffee will be furnished.

After dinner, Bill Worden, head of the Worden Travel Agency, will show travel pictures of Hawaii and swimming sports. Some cartoons will be shown.

Report from Sacramento

By ASSEMBLYMAN
ROBERT L. CONDON

EVERYBODY WANTED TO CUT DOWN on the Governor's budget this year, but few could agree on where and how to cut. Finally, consideration of the measure went to a free conference committee. Senators George Miller, Jr., George Hatfield, and W. P. Rich were appointed to represent the Senate, while Assemblymen Sam Yorty, Robert Kirkwood and Jonathon Hollibaugh sat in for the Lower House.

After four executive sessions the committee reported back to their respective chambers and announced unanimous agreement. In round figures, the new budget, 25 million dollars less than Governor Warren's original request, allows state expenditure of 1 billion 35 million dollars.

CONTROVERSIAL ISSUES resolved were the Centennials Commission, which will be allowed to carry out contracts already made but cannot make new expenditures; and the elimination of an additional 4 million dollars for new armories, leaving an armory program of 3 million dollars.

The Crime Commission, too, is still in operation. The Commission will have $102,000 to work with, but they will be prohibited from using any of this money for "dissemination of propaganda for or against legalized wagering."

AFTER THE CONFEREES made their report, and members of both houses thanked those colleagues who had worked on the budget in committees, each house voted its approval. Only seven dissenting votes were recorded in the Assembly. In the Senate five Senators voiced their disapproval.

With the battle of the budget finally resolved, next week should see action on all those measures held up because of the ruling that no appropriation can be considered until the Governor's budget is approved.

MARGARINE: Perhaps the only legislative accomplishment of significance to Californians is the bill now before the Governor permitting the sale of colored oleomargarine.

This measure, by Assemblyman Maloney, was first killed in an Assembly committee and later revived by a successful motion to withdraw from that unit. Then, by a compromise forbidding sale of colored margarine in restaurants, the dairy interests consented to the bill's adoption. Only four votes were cast against it in the Senate and all Assemblymen concurred in final passage.

LABOR: Little has been done affecting the status of labor one way or another at this session. Labor's attempts to raise payments for workmen's compensation, unemployment insurance, and disability insurance have been bottled up in either Senate or Assembly committee.

Employer's efforts at restoring the "hot cargo" law and instituting an "anti-featherbedding" law met equally ignominious deaths. ALTHOUGH S. B. 377, Senator Ward, which would save employers 16 million dollars in unemployment insurance taxes while giving employees 3 million dollars increased disability benefits, has passed a Senate committee, it seems destined for defeat in the Lower House.

MISCELLANY: The motion to withdraw the F.E.P.C. lost when the author could only obtain 31 votes. . . . The bills making possession of slot machines a crime apparently will be bottled up in Senate committee. . . . Unless drastically amended, the Dickey water-pollution bills will probably be vetoed by the Governor on the grounds that they are not effective to control pollution by large industry. . . . The Grunsky equal-pay-for-women-for-equal-work bill passed both houses.

Captain Sandford Sez:

I SAVED THE LIVES of a man and his wife and several children on the State Highway . . . at least I think I did. Here is how it happened. I was driving towards Oakland on suicide corner, which is a two-lane highway at this time because of the contractor's excavation trucks, etc. My speed was about 45 miles an hour and there was only one car behind me, occupied by a man (the driver), a woman and several children.

On the middle of the bend we were suddenly confronted with an oncoming surge of high speed traffic led by a loaded bus. In the middle of all this a glance at the rear vision mirror showed no car behind me, and here was this stupid nit-wit right alongside of me. Fortunately there were no other cars behind me and I stopped my car almost dead, permitting this maniac to duck into the right aisle, thereby avoiding a head-on collision by inches.

NOW, DID I DO THE RIGHT THING, or should I have let him get what he was asking for? That's my problem, Mr. Anthony.

THIS IS ABOUT TRUCKS and truck drivers. The first truck I ever saw was a Model T Ford Roadster with two planks stuck on the back thus carrying a light load . . . and that's not yesterday either. Back in the second decade of the century we had slow moving, heavy trucks with solid tires. Their drivers were entirely without consideration for anybody else on the highway and had a very rotten reputation because of it.

After the First World War came another era . . . pneumatic tired, high speed trucks, often pulling trailers. Most of these were handled and driven by keen young World War I veterans who, often working in pairs, one sleeping while the other drove, instituted a long haulage, transcontinental transportation plan, which has now been developed to a high state of efficiency. These drivers were keen, courteous, capable and intelligent and were without doubt the best drivers on our highways then.

NOW WE ARE LOSING ground again and many of the present truck drivers are certainly not keen, clever, courteous or intelligent. For example, a five ton truck, rolling at 65 miles an hour in the middle aisle on suicide corner is a deadly menace to us all. In fact, it is in my judgment, completely out of control.

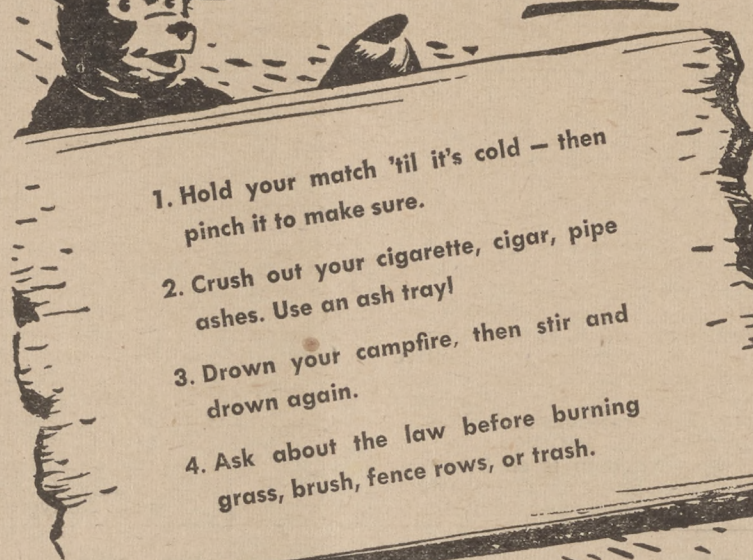

I made an inspection of the young trees planted in Lafayette Homeland. Many of them are thriving and beautiful and some are only fair and some are, I think, dead already. If they are not dead their indicators sure ain't a-working right.

MY WIFE HANDED ME A CARTOON from the paper showing a young kangaroo with a great big revolver in its pouch, looking at its mother and saying "Ma, do you want to see a dran quick draw?"

AND I THOUGHT I had cleaned up this kangaroo business to the satisfaction of all concerned. And now what do you think? Along comes a lady friend of mine and says that she has been worrying for several years about the love life of the oyster! I have eaten many of the succulent bi-valves and now I suppose I must buy myself a diving suit and toss myself into the drink to find an answer to that one, and I probably will too. Nuts, sez I. Good-bye now.

Vacation Time..

-is the time to be careful too!

1. Hold your match 'til it's cold - then pinch it to make sure.
2. Crush out your cigarette, cigar, pipe ashes. Use an ash tray!
3. Drown your campfire, then stir and drown again.
4. Ask about the law before burning grass, brush, fence rows, or trash.

Remember - Only you can PREVENT FOREST FIRES!

Area Will See State Caravan

Five Contra Costa county cities, including Martinez, have been listed on the tentative itinerary of the California Historical Caravan, it was announced today.

The traveling museum of valuable historical objects and documents pertaining to California's rich and colorful past will visit Martinez, Walnut Creek, Crockett, Antioch and Brentwood.

Tentative dates assigned each of the five cities are: Walnut Creek, July 21 and 22; Antioch, July 23 and 24; Brentwood, July 25 and 26; Martinez, July 27 and 28; Crockett, July 29, 30 and 31.

Included in the exhibits in the Historical Caravan are Drake's Plate, Portola's diary, Serra's Bible, Fort Ross bill of sale, Russian weapons and tools, letter of Governor Alvarado, first book published in California, ranchero equipment and trade items, Ide's proclamation, photograph of original Bear Flag, California's first newspaper, Patty Reed's doll, replica of original gold particle, Sutter's letter to Vallejo announcing the discovery of gold, gold rush exhibits, a Bret Harte manuscript, a Mark Twain first edition, documents relating to the admission of California to the United States as the 31st state, and many other priceless exhibits.

Expiration of Vet Benefits Nears

Expiration of one of the benefits of the GI Bill of Rights on July 25 - the Serviceman's Readjustment Allowance, or $20 a week unemployment pay - has focused the attention of many veterans on the fact that other Federal benefits carry deadline dates, according to J. W. Hammond, Veterans Service Officer.

For example, World War II veterans must begin their training under the educational provisions of the GI Bill within four years after discharge, or by July 25, 1951, whichever is later.

GI guaranteed loans, however, are available until July 25, 1957; so veterans need be in no hurry to use this aid to home, farm or business ownership, Hammond pointed out.

As to disability compensation for service connected illness or injury, and as to reinstatement of lapsed National Service Life Insurance, there are no limiting dates.

But there are many individual exceptions to many specific deadlines, Hammond added. Men who enlisted between October 6, 1945 and October 5, 1946 have special benefit-expiration dates, even on the unemployment allowance, for example. Hammond urged veterans who have questions about any of their State and Federal rights and benefits to consult him at 108 Hall of Records, Martinez.

County Buys Storage Yard in Lafayette

The Schwarz property in Lafayette will be purchased by the county on July 25, according to a decision of the Board of Supervisors at their Monday meeting.

Purchase price of the property is $8500 and will be used as a storage yard for the County Surveyor's Office.

ANOTHER GRANDCHILD

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. McGregor revealed that they have a new granddaughter, born May 9, at Alta Bates Hospital in Oakland. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. McGregor of Oakland, has been named Shelly, and has two sisters, Joan and Kathy.

Area Faces More Split Session Classrooms

The Bay Area Council, after a study of school trends in counties in the Bay region, has warned that an even larger school enrollment in the next 10 years will increase the demands for school facilities. Frank E. Marsh, council general manager, pointed out in making the report public figures indicate school construction should continue to have a number-one priority for the next 5 to 10 years.

School systems in the Bay Area are already overflowing due to the increased number of children since 1940. The need for additional facilities will become even greater as more hundreds of children reach school age.

One of the major problems facing educators is the "double session" system, according to the council. These part day sessions require a classroom of pupils to crowd a full days work into a half-day schedule in order that another class may be accommodated in the same room.

The study showed that the split-sessions have been found necessary in all but 1 of 9 Bay Area counties.

The following number of students on half-day sessions in Contra Costa County is indicative of the trend throughout the Bay region, the council reported: Lafayette, 420; Orinda, 367; Pleasant Hill, 341; Walnut Creek, 183; San Pablo City, 2824; Martinez, 148; Pinole-Hercules, 90; Concord, 651; Bay Point, 122; Ambrose, 250; Antioch-Live Oak, 186; Oak Grove, 122; Richmond City, 10,512.

Mart Members to Attend Conclave

Instead of a breakfast meeting next Monday morning, members of the real estate Mart will go to Oakland where a conclave of Mart members from all over the State will be held. Contra Costa Mart members will meet in front of Alsam's at 9 a.m. when two buses will be in readiness to take them to the session at Scottish Rite Temple in Oakland.

Delegates from offices throughout California will gather at this conference, sponsored by the California Real Estate Association, to discuss and exchange ideas on real estate matters.

Each Mart board will present a speaker on some phase of the business. Bill Anderson of the Clark Anderson-Walnut Creek Realty Company will be speaker for the local contingent.

Bill Hayward of the Clark Anderson Realty Company was elected Mart chairman for the next quarter at the breakfast meeting held at Alsam's Monday morning. Larry Haines of the Haines Realty Company of Lafayette and Arch McKinley of Walnut Creek were elected as new board members for the year.

Ted Schreiber of Johnson-Schreiber Realty Company, Walnut Creek, guest speaker at this session, presented a talk on the tax situation.

The Zamloch family had lived in Orinda but have recently become residents of Balboa Island.

ORINDA RELATIVE

Patsy, a native of Oakland, is survived by her parents and several aunts and uncles, including Mrs. Claude Zamloch and Mr. and Mrs. Archer Zamloch of Orinda, Miss Antoinette Zamloch of Oakland, Miss Grace McMurry of Berkeley and Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Libbey of Los Angeles.

Church Will Hold Communion

The quarterly celebration of the Lord's Supper will take place at Orinda Community Church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Preparation and distribution of the Communion is in the hands of the Diaconate composed of five laymen and four lay women, and it is administered by the minister, Rev. Fred Morrow. Members will also be received. The choir is directed by Mary Elizabeth Tomme.

The Sunday church school meets at its year-round time, 9:30, with provision for all classes up to and including the 6th grade. Older young people will attend the summer church services.

According to announcement of the Diaconate, regular morning worship is to be changed on July 3 to the hour of 9:30, permitting parents to attend church services while children are in classes. This arrangement will continue for three months.

A good attendance and effective work is reported of the Orinda church's vacation Bible school, just ending the first of a two week's session. All kindergarten and grade school children are being served in a program of stories, games, worship, handwork and visual aids. The Rev. Mr. Morrow is the director.

Miss Barbara Jeanne Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Smith of the Potter's Wheel in Lafayette, chose a dessert party at which she was hostess as the occasion for announcing her engagement to Fred Meyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Meyer of Colusa Avenue, Berkeley.

Attended by classmates of Barbara's from the Anna Head School in Berkeley, the party was in honor of Margaret Riley of Oakland, a University of California student who left for Europe last week.

Moran-Rarig Vows Recited Saturday

At a nuptial mass read in St. Leo's Catholic Church Saturday morning, June 18, Miss Virginia Moran exchanged nuptial vows with Jack Rarig of Oakland. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Moran of Lafayette. The groom, who has just completed his senior year at St. Mary's College, is the son of Mrs. Ann Rarig.

Father Charles Hackel, head of Catholic Charities of Alameda, and a close friend of the family, read the ritual in the presence of 500 guests. Miss Mildred Long of San Francisco, who was a soloist at the wedding of Virginia's parents, sang a group of numbers including Schubert's "Ave Maria," and Frank's "Panis Angelicus." The church was beautifully decorated with white gladioli on the main altar, and white sweet peas on the candelabra which lined the aisle.

BRIDAL GOWN

Virginia wore a gown of white Belgian lace and slipper satin, with scalloped V-neck, and peplum of lace. Long sleeves and train with fingertip length veil of illusion completed the ensemble. Her headdress was of heirloom lace in the Tudor style and she carried white orchids, lilies of the valley, and a white prayer-book.

Miss Nancy Moran, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and was attired in white marquisette and wore a white horsehair picture hat with long blue streamers. Mrs. Marshall Moran, Mrs. George Maraschi, Miss Mary McEnhill, and Miss Mary Tweedy, who served as bridesmaids, were similarly attired, and all carried bouquets of blue delphinium. Little Marylane Culver, niece of the groom, was flower girl, and her dress was an exact duplicate of those worn by the other attendants. She carried a blue tulle basket of delphinium.

MALE ATTENDANTS

James Rarig, brother of the groom, served as best man, with three brothers of the bride, Tom Marshall and Neil Moran, in usher roles, assisted by Jack Tor-dieu.

Immediately following the wedding ceremony a reception for between 450 and 500 guests was held at the Moran residence off St. Mary's Road. The bride and groom received their guests under a green and white canopy in the Moran patio.

MOTHERS PRESENT

Mrs. Thomas Moran, mother of the bride, was dressed in powder-blue crepe, with navy-blue accessories, and wore a deep-colored orchid on her shoulder.

Beige crepe with navy accessories was chosen by Mrs. Ann Rarig, mother of the groom. She also wore an orchid shoulder corsage.

The just-weds are spending a honeymoon at Timberline Lodge in the High Sierras, and will visit Lake Tahoe, and Yosemite Valley before taking up residence in their new home on Eleanor Avenue, near the Moran ranch of Seven Oaks. They will return to Lafayette about July 5.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH

"Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, buy, and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price" (Isaiah 55:1). This is the Golden Text of the Christian Science Lesson-Sermon for Sunday, June 26. The subject of the sermon is "Christian Science."

The following citations are included in the sermon:

The Bible: "And the scribes and Pharisees watched him, whether he would heal on the sabbath day; that they might find an accusation against him. Then said Jesus unto them, I will ask you one thing; Is it lawful on the sabbath days to do good, or to do evil? To save life, or to destroy it? And looking round about upon them all, he said unto the man, Stretch forth thy hand. And he did so; and his hand was restored whole as the other" (Luke 6:7, 9, 10).

"Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "You can prove for yourself, dear reader, the Science of healing, and so ascertain if the author has given you the correct interpretation of Scripture" (p. 547).

Visitor Tells Relatives Here Of Death March

Colonel and Mrs. Memory H. Cain of Santa Barbara were guests of Colonel and Mrs. Clayton Herman of Hawthorne Drive for several days last week.

Colonel Cain was the Commander of the New Mexico National Guard Regiment which fought throughout the battle of Bataan and was in the terrible "Death March" as a prisoner of the Japs. He spent over two and one half years in Jap Prisoner of War Camps in which he was repeatedly tortured for trying to protect his men, being finally rescued at Cabanatuan.

During his stay in Lafayette he met Urban Stark of Hawthorne Drive and discovered that Stark's brother had been lost in the Philippines. He recalled the brother and was able to give an account of the circumstances under which he died, which Mr. Stark had not previously known.

Colonel Cain says he has a habit of being a prisoner since he was also captured by the Germans in World War I and spent some time then in a German Prisoner of War camp.

CONSTANCE HANSEN

The old saying about the ill wind came to mind not long ago when, due to the sewer installation operations on our street, I had to take the long way around via Thompson Road to get out to the highway, and had the pleasure of seeing a very nice landscaping job, which I otherwise might have missed.

The house is in what might be called a Mexican ranch house style, L-shaped, with a tile roof, and set well back on a pie-shaped corner lot, the planting has been kept very simple, with good use of native materials, such as the Monterey pine and coast redwood placed along the boundaries at the edge of the spacious lawn, and on the rather irregular bank which bounds the property on Thompson Road.

PLEASANT DETOUR

Redwoods and other evergreens on the bank have been interplanted with various deciduous shrubs and small trees, and can be left within a year or two as a sort of wild groundcover, needing not much more care except for the cleaning away of weeds around the edges. Color in the garden is provided by beds of annuals such as verbenas, petunias, low-growing French marigolds, and nasturtiums, with each kind kept in its own separate planting, so that there is an impression of plenty of color but no confusion. In fact, the whole thing is so right and pleasing to the eye that I have driven by several times although a detour is no longer necessary just to see it again.

Such a garden is certainly the result of careful planning, which has taken into consideration the natural site, the type of house, and the habits of the owners. Most people who have just built a new house might not be able to afford such a complete planting with such good-sized plants, but while they are waiting for their bank account to recover from the demands of housebuilding, they might make the time pass by working on their landscaping plans. Even if you are not familiar with the kinds of shrubs and trees used in gardens here, if you have a well thought out plan, your nurseryman will be glad to suggest suitable varieties to fit your requirements.

If you expect to have a plan made by a landscape designer, it will still help if you have thought out your requirements ahead of time, so that the plan will be not only a pretty picture, but will also fit the family needs and habits. While you are trying to decide how to do the landscaping, your friends with gardens will be besieging you with offers of surplus plant material.

Rather than refuse such offers, or sticking the plants in where they very likely will have to be dug up again, try planting them in cans or pots in a sheltered place handy to a water faucet, where they can be cared for until the ground is ready and the planting plan fairly well organized. By this time the roots will probably be well established on the plants which are going to survive, and will do better than if they had been planted out right away.

TEST YOUR SOIL

Owners of new homes who have moved in too late for the big spring planting season can find plenty to do this summer cleaning up their grounds and preparing the soil for fall planting. Before adding anything to the soil, consider its nature. Your soil may be light and sandy, with the surface baking to a brick-like crust in Summer, and you'll find that what it needs is not gypsum or soil sulphur, which help to ameliorate heavy clay soils, but humus building materials, such as peat, manure, or cover crops disced in.

Where the soil is the so-called 'dobeey,' don't be in too much of a hurry to cover up with a layer of "top soil," since you may well be hiding your own top soil under something not so good, especially if your property is below surrounding hills. Much of the clay loam in these parts is very rich, and can be made more workable by an application of soil sulfur about a quarter of an inch deep

Mills College Grads Hold 70th Reunion

The 70th Annual Alumnae Association meeting at Mills College was a scene of great activity over the June 3rd weekend. The fifteenth reunion of Mrs. Stuart Henderson and Mrs. Kirk Miles and the twentieth for Mrs. Benjamin Randall took place there.

On Thursday and Friday alumnae arrived from all points of the U.S. to enjoy the College picnic, the Lantern Procession to Lake Aliso and to catch up on events happening since college days. Saturday buffet luncheons were served at Mary Morse and Ethel Moore Halls.

DEDICATION CEREMONY

Dr. Lynn White gave a short talk to each luncheon group. After lunch the newly built Reinhardt House was dedicated and dessert served. Reinhardt House is named after the late Dr. Aurelia Henry Reinhardt, president for many years of Mills College. The new building will be used as the much needed center for Alumnae and is built in the most modern trend.

Jade Snow Wong a Mills alumnae, planned the color scheme and decor with alumnae groups raising funds to furnish it. President and Mrs. White were at Home after the dedication.

over the surface and scratched in, and the use of peat moss, manure, leafmold, or cover crops. The humus materials are most effective when applied on the surface or in the top layer of the soil.

Cornwall Heads Disaster Unit

Blizzards, tornados, floods, have been listed on the nation's disaster roll call so far this year, and the fire season is approaching. To meet these major disasters the American Red Cross maintains stores of supplies ready to offer food, medicine, and shelter immediately from the nearest warehouse by the fastest route with trained personnel to distribute and administer, according to word from National Headquarters, received by the local chapter head, Mrs. John Irving.

To be prepared to meet conditions in the event of disaster, every chapter is urged to name a chairman who in turn sets up a complete unit ready to go into action at a moments notice, she explained.

To serve the area within the bounds of the Walnut Creek Chapter, Mrs. Irving has appointed Neill Cornwall of Lafayette who is engaged in reorganizing and expanding the local program. His complete plan will be released in the near future, it is understood.

Red Cross disaster aid extends beyond the emergency needs to a long range rehabilitation program where necessary. Many small businesses have been established, entire communities have benefited from a rehabilitation campaign which included the construction of dwellings on long time loans or outright grants, when it is apparent the beneficiaries will probably never be able to repay.

"Those helped must never be harassed by the Red Cross," is the National admonition to all local workers.

Marian Nylon Succeeds Helen Burling

Confirmation of the appointment of Miss Marian Nylon to the position of Home Demonstration Agent in Contra Costa County was received today by Farm Advisor R. E. Goble from Miss Claribel Nye, State Home Demonstration Leader in the Agricultural Extension Service, University of California.

Miss Nylon will succeed Helen Burling, who recently retired.

A native of California and a graduate of the University of California, where she majored in English and history and later in home economics, Miss Nylon brings to the position a knowledge of northern California and of the university, of which the Agricultural Extension Service is a part.

Miss Nylon's experience includes four years with the Farm Credit

Administration. She left this position to join the Navy. After three years services in the WAVES as lieutenant (junior grade), she returned to the university for additional work in home economics.

Miss Nylon's appointment is effective July 18, 1949. After a week of special preparation at the university for her work in Contra Costa County, Miss Nylon's headquarters will be with the Agricultural Extension Service at Cowell where she will specialize in adult work.

Miss Britta Lindfors, assistant home demonstration agent, will continue to give the major part of her time to 4-H Club work, in which she has already become an outstanding leader, according to Mr. Goble.

Dutch Family Moves Here

New to the Central Contra Costa area are Mr. and Mrs. Nico D. Snel, son, Nico, Jr., and daughters Helen and Cella, who arrived from the Province of North Holland in May to become residents of Walnut Creek.

Snel was a professor of music in Holland, with degrees in conducting choral groups and symphonies. A teacher of piano, violin and singing, he also is a composer of songs and light operas and author of several sacred numbers for choirs which have been published and used extensively.

OPENS MUSIC STUDIO

With opening of a music studio at his home, 1962 Walnut Avenue, Snel will give lessons in violin, piano and singing and training in the theory of harmony. This fall, the artist plans to organize different ensembles for instruments and choir groups.

The Snel family are members of the L.D.S. Church and are eager to take an active part in the activities of the community and country they have adopted.

NICO, JR., AT ACALANES

Nico, Jr., has already made his mark at Acalanes High School where he enrolled upon coming to this community. His good nature, will to learn the language more perfectly and interesting stories of Holland have made him a center of interest.

The senior Snel expressed his pleasure with the high school music program and his enthusiasm in all things musical.

His tales of keeping his family together during the war years, of hiding in basements for months at a time to evade the forced labor camps of the Germans and the many other war-time experiences of the family, explain his pleasure in starting out in this country to make a home for his wife and children.

Benefit Night at Straw Hat Revue

Alumnae members of Alpha Gamma Delta sorority, their husbands and friends, will hold a benefit theater night at the Straw Hat Revue on Tuesday.

Plans to attend the show were made at a recent alumnae executive board meeting, the theater benefit to take the place of the regular monthly meeting of the sorority. Mrs. D. S. Roberts, Jr., is in charge of arrangements for the affair.

Patricia Jane Christ, William Channell Married At Claremont Country Club

Miss Patricia Jane Christ became the bride of William Richard Channell, son of Dr. and Mrs. William Channell of Orchard Road, at a lovely formal ceremony at Claremont Country Club last Saturday evening.

A cathedral setting was arranged with trees of magnolias placed on either side of the altar and garlands of laurel combined with a profusion of stock and Bermuda Lillies decorating the lounge.

300 GUESTS

More than 300 guests watched the bride-to-be walk up the candle and flower marked aisle escorted by her father, Mr. Robert Christ of Scenic Avenue, Piedmont. Her wedding gown was fashioned of blush net over satin, with the full hoop skirt trimmed with lace-feather medallions. The long tulle veil was trimmed in lace which also fashioned her coronet head-dress, and a shower arrangement of valley lillies completed her ensemble.

The bride's attendants were gowned in green satin princess style models and carried bouquets of roses. They also had the same blooms in halo arrangements for their hair.

ATTENDANTS

The bride's sister, Mrs. Donald Kerr (Jeanie Christ) was matron of honor and bridesmaids were Marilyn Shutes, Mrs. George Hall (Betty Rohde), Patricia Dana, Mrs. Frederick Ackerman (Gloria Mordy) and the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. John Collins, the former Sue Channell.

Edward Rowe served the benedict-elect as best man and ushers were Donald Kerr, John Collins, James Whitson, Kenneth Miller, Ned Gates and Joseph Hunt.

MONTECITO HONEYMOON

Mrs. Christ, mother of the bride, attended the ceremony in a beige chiffon gown and wore a corsage of butterfly orchids. Mrs. Channell chose pink chiffon and white orchids for the ensemble she wore when she attended the rites with her husband, Dr. Channell.

The newlyweds will live in an Oakland apartment following their return from a honeymoon spent at Rancho San Ysidro, Montecito. Both young people, who have been widely entertained by friends since their engagement was announced are graduates of Stanford University.

More Highway Billboards to be Built

More giant advertising billboards will be built in the area by the Burkhart Outdoor Advertising Company in the face of increasing protests by local organizations and individuals.

The Lafayette Chamber of Commerce last week went on record as opposing more signs and announced they will support the Lafayette Improvement Association on this problem.

An application by the Burkhart Company for permission to construct another signboard on land belonging to A. J. Flagg, fronting the north side of the State Highway about 300 feet west of Leland Drive (east of the Martinez cut off) was denied by the County Planning Commission. Reason given for the recommended denial was that the sit is not in a retail business zone "as yet," according to Thomas Heaton, county planning technician. No permit is needed to construct signs in areas zoned for business.

"There is still plenty of room in properly zoned areas for outdoor advertising," Heaton said. "Outdoor advertising is a legitimate business and we only try to confine it to properly zoned areas."

ANOTHER ONE SET

W. R. Burkhart, head of the advertising company bearing his name, requested the site denied him, saying that land in business zoned areas was unavailable. Heaton informed the SUN.

However, the next day Burkhart notified the Planning Commission that he intends to erect a sign on property located at Mt. Diablo and 1st Street.

Burkhart informed the SUN that the sign will be constructed as soon as possible, and will be used for a "local advertiser." He said that he has had two Walnut Creek merchants under contract for some time and would like to erect "two more signs" on the stretch between the tunnel and Walnut Creek.

COMPETITORS

Speaking of his competitors in the outdoor advertising business, Burkhart said, "When they get a string of signs built in an area, they're satisfied. Then they build up contention among local groups. The big advertisers try to screw down the lid and keep other advertisers out."

Lafayette Chamber of Commerce passed a formal resolution against construction and maintenance of outdoor billboards, and recommended that the campaign against billboards in the area be handled through the Lafayette Improvement Association.

Margaret Zamloch Gives Party

Margaret Zamloch of Orinda entertained some of her school friends, Friday, to celebrate the end of their sophomore year.

During the evening several others stopped by. The noise of the girls and radio kept the girls happy and the family awake.

Couple Celebrate Golden Wedding

Their two children, Mrs. A. J. Baitx of Moraga and Mrs. L. F. Randall of Walnut Creek, joined other relatives and friends to celebrate the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McDermott of Berkeley on Sunday.

The honored couple are natives of California and have resided in Berkeley since 1906. They were married June 20, 1899 in the Third Congregational Church, San Francisco. McDermott was an employee of the Giant Powder Company at Giant until retirement in 1946.

The maid of honor, Mrs. Mary Landry of Los Angeles, the best man, E. M. Stroecker of Fairbanks, Alaska, and the bridesmaids, Mrs. Effie Phelan of Piedmont and Mrs. Susie Jones of San Francisco who attended the couple at their wedding ceremony 50 years ago, joined them in celebrating observance of the event Sunday.

The honored pair have five grandchildren.

We sell these for $78.35 regularly, but lately it seems that when a wife wants to leave her bed and board she either sleeps in another room or leaves the house completely. So we have the thing on sale for $52.50. Now you can sleep alone and save $25.85 at the same time.

Springs and Mattresses to fit the above mentioned "piece de resistance" regular $238. — 'spashe!' $158. But you can get full size sets for $109. so you may just as well sleep together after all and you'll save $62.50 more. Come in and ask us how we figure that one out.

Here's a deal that we had to take back from a guy who said he'd rather spend $20.00 a day at a night club than pay for his furniture — so we now have a blonde Maple vanity for $129.50 with revolving bench. We sold it for $270.00. I feel sorry for his wife 'cause she looked pretty as a picture in this mirror. Made by Heywood-Wakefield.

Another odd vanity and mirror in dark provincial Maple — regular price $65.95 — now $49.50.

HAIR RUGS
9x12 — $19.95

6 piece bleached Oak bed set — twin beds, chest, vanity and bench, and night stand. Everybody sells this for $429.00—close out at $275.00 or with matching cedar chest $295.00.

Chest — French provincial, maple, good quality. Regularly $99.50, now $69.50.

Monterey bed divan and chair in bleached wood... regular price $169.95 — now $132.50.

We have a few end tables and cocktails and other stuff at below cost. We are anxious to sell all modern so here's your chance — tables $21.50 now $12.95.

GOVERNOR WINTHROP lived to be an old man — years ago, and we don't blame him for living so long because we still have 2 of his secretaries here and they're beautiful. You too would have a yen to live to a ripe old age if you had this gorgeous mahogany secretary in your living room. One was $94.50 — now $75.00 and the other was $124.95 — now $87.50. The higher one comes equipped with an extra set of drawers.

Chas. of London. I understand, was a high type man whose name was Charles and lived in London ten decades ago. Now the set we have was only named after him and wasn't his — ours was only made a couple of months ago, but it doesn't fit in with our new look so we're letting Charlie go for $209.00—mulberry frieze cover and 10 year guarantee — save $100.

This beautifully horrible thing is now $159.50. It was $275.00. It's a modern sofa with 2 cushions, covered in brown outside and yellow inside. You can't go wrong on it even if you can't stand yellow — throw a sheet over the thing and take it home. Only my wife can't stand yellow and can't stand sheets.

Modern pictures, animals, birds, florals, 2 for the price of one.

20 piece dish set — plain-assorted colors $4.25. 32 pc. set $7.95.

Highway Patrol To Stage Benefit

Racing drivers who will represent Contra Costa Patrol in the "Spectacular Destruction Derby," spotlight feature of the fourth annual Widows' and Orphans Benefit Show of the California Association of Highway Patrolmen, to be staged at Contra Costa Stadium in Pacheco next Thursday night, were announced today by Captain George A. Belon.

Four county patrolmen will drive four automobiles in the contest against four of the leading midget auto racing drivers and the contest is decided by the ability of drivers to ram and smash their cars into those of their opponents and put them out of the running. All glass from windshields and headlights is removed and only a small amount of gasoline is used in the tanks, to reduce the hazard of serious injury.

But even so, wheels are torn off, fenders are ripped and banged and the "Derby" is certain to be a thrill spectacle.

On the County C.H.P. team will be the following: Gordon "Gordy" Campbell, John "Crazy" Cox, Charles "Chuck" Casaurang and Bill "Ichabod" Ball. Drivers for midget racing drivers team: Marvin Burke (former BCRA champion), Johnny Soares, John Smith, and John Boyd, all holders of top racing honors on the West Coast.

Meantime, word has been received that many of the Patrol officials from Sacramento and nearby counties are planning to attend, a complete list will be announced later.

There will also be a full program of racing events and now that the Pacheco track, Contra Costa Stadium, has been in operation for several years, it is drawing speed kings from all sections of the state and nation.

FROM THE SIDELINES

—By Coach Erwin Mattson—

It is with a heavy hand and a heavy heart that I write today's column. The past week has given us much time for thought and meditation due to the loss of a boy who will always have a place in the heart of all those who knew him.

TED FRY came to Acalanes at the beginning of the school year and in the short time he was here became a friend to all. He became a popular leader in his class and everyone had a "hello" for Ted and he for them.

THE LOSS OF A BOY as enthusiastic and happy as Ted is difficult to realize let alone understand.

THE ONE CONSOLING THOUGHT is that the world is a better place that he lived as he gave far more than he took.

Ted was a member of the Acalanes football varsity and as such was one who lived each game to its fullest.

IN COACHING A BOY one gets an insight that few are fortunate to have. Many are the memories of bygone days that come back to me — of the time when we first sent him into a game and the look of enthusiasm on his face — of the times when we lost which only gave him more determination to win — of the times when we won and he enjoyed it to its fullest — of the times he was sent in to convert after touchdowns. — when he said "I can do it coach" — of the time when he helped throw me in the shower after defeating Diablo in the final game of the season.

THE AFFECTION AND THOUGHT held for Ted cannot be put in words — for words are inadequate to express those feelings which we feel deep in our hearts. For the same reason I find it difficult to express myself at a time like this in words printed on paper.

THE FEELINGS OF HIS CLASSMATES and many friends has been shown in part by a gift to the school in the form of a perpetual trophy to be awarded annually to the outstanding line-man in football. The winners of the award will be judged on courage and team spirit which Ted exemplified. He had often spoken of such an award and had plans for establishing one in the near future. Next year such a trophy will take its place at Acalanes.

IN ADDITION a gift is being made to the Childrens Hospital in Ted's memory.

His spirit and courage will always be a part of Acalanes for he was a Don at heart and in action. He won and wore his Block "A" with pride and his name will always be on the roll of Acalanes. He was a real American boy and it is with pride that we remember him as a teammate and one who lives forever in our hearts.

THERE IS A POEM which reads:

"For when the great scorer comes
To mark down your name,
He marks not whether you
Won or lost but how you
Played the game."

Acalanes Groups Elect New Officers

Officers for various organizations at Acalanes Union High School were elected before school ended last week.

Boys' Federation held its elections and the following were elected: Jack King, president; Orlando Chiavini, vice president; Ken Jones, secretary; Dick Laney, treasurer.

Girls' League recently installed the following: Sylvia Hawley, president; Jackie Swanson, vice president; Laura Castelnuovo, secretary; Frances Eaton, treasurer; Carola Courtright, commissioner at large; Yvonne Massone, senior class representative; Dodie Bee, junior class representative; and Clarice Brennan, sophomore class representative.

Junior Statesmen have named Ann Larkey, president; John Wahl, vice president; Dorothy Bedard and Jack Babcock, regional supervisors; Neal Warren, council representative; Chris Inman-Kane, chairman of social activities; Anne Hawksworth, secretary-treasurer; and Art Dull, chairman of educational activities.

With Betty Keefauver as president, new G. A. A. officers include Pat Pfeiffer, Anne Hawksworth, Valerie de Laneaux, Rosemary Indelicato, Diane Owen and Anne Seulerberger.

Dry Season Brings Fire Warning From Patrol

"Don't throw that burning cigar or cigarette stub out the car window. It's against the law," said Clifford E. Peterson, Commissioner of the California Highway Patrol, today as he pledged cooperation with the Division of Forestry in an all-out effort to keep the California fire toll down.

"Fire takes a heavy toll each year," continued Peterson, "and many fires are caused by motorists who carelessly throw cigarettes and burning matches from their automobiles."

In stressing the need for full cooperation by every citizen and visitor in the state, the Commissioner said, "Every member of the Patrol will be extra alert during the dry season for violations of the Vehicle Code covering this matter."

Red Cross Makes Progress Reports

The recent annual meeting of the local Red Cross chapter revealed that only 46 first aid certificates were granted this past year; altogether too few for so populous an area, according to Mrs. Karl Pape, chapter chairman of first aid and water safety.

Mrs. Pape cited two cases of "graduates" of the class she instructed early in the year, who because of their knowledge of "what to do until the doctor comes" not only avoided complications but saved money.

At least 900 children are expected to attend the swimming classes at Acalanes pool this summer and a special welcome awaits adult learners, Mrs. Pape declared.

Major projects of Junior Red Cross under the leadership of Mrs. DeWolfe Miller was the making of playground equipment for Juvenile Hall in Martinez. Gift boxes were also sent to school children in the war-devastated areas of Europe.

Mrs. Irving, chapter head, reported that $500 was sent to the National Children's fund to be expended for children in need anywhere. Among those helped were Alaskan Indian children, she explained.

In the home service department Mrs. Ruth Basham, committee secretary, reported a definite increase in the number and variety of cases handled since the first of the year.

Production chairman, Mrs. J. C. McGeehon announced the knitting quota completed more than 100% but that sewing still lagged.

Tip to Housewife: Protect Glassware

Tumblers and other glassware get extra heavy use in summer when the family enjoys cool drinks and chilled desserts. To bring glassware through without casualties, Britta Lindfors, assistant home demonstration agent, offers some suggestions, made by U.S.-D.A. household equipment specialists.

Sudden changes in temperature are responsible for the untimely end of much glassware. Glass expands with heat, contracts with cold, often cracks or breaks when forced to do either too suddenly. This is why hot water should not be poured over glass in washing or rinsing but instead the glass should be laid gently into the water.

It is also why glass should not go directly from refrigerator to warm dishwater and why jars of food, hot from the canner, should not stand in a breeze to cool. In making iced tea or coffee in glass, pour the hot beverage slowly into the ice rather than against the glass, or — safer — make the beverage in a china or pottery pitcher and then pour into glasses. Ice cubes should not be dropped carelessly into glasses; the force of their fall may crack the glass.

In dishwashing the rule, "Glass first, silver second, china third" saves nicks, chips and scratches. The less glass is handled, the less chance of breaking. Many women are finding that by washing with the new detergents glass will come out streakless without wiping.

Colgate is fifth plant added to the system in thirteen months

There's new power pouring from the Yuba River today... 40,200 horsepower. A few days ago the tumbling Yuba waters began spinning the generator in P.G. and E.'s new Colgate plant built to replace the pioneer Colgate unit that first supplied Oakland with electricity half a century ago. Colgate is just one of the many powerhouses

...completed or building... in P.G. and E.'s postwar expansion program, which is adding nearly two million horsepower in new generating capacity to our system. In the past thirteen months alone this program has paid big power dividends... a total of almost 600,000 horsepower from five new major plants. In addition to Colgate, they are:

Kern Steam Plant, near Bakersfield, began turning out 101,000 horsepower for California in May, 1948.

Electra Powerhouse, on the Mokelumne River, 133,000 horsepower, came on the line in July, 1948.

West Point Powerhouse, also on the Mokelumne River, added another 21,000 horsepower in November, 1948.

Station "P" the steam giant by San Francisco Bay added 298,000 horsepower in February, 1949.

Record Crowd at Dad's Day Buffet

A record attendance at the Father's Day buffet dinners served at Orinda Country Club last Sunday attested to the popularity of this regular Sunday function.

A special picnic buffet was served on this occasion, with a second less informal buffet dinner served in the club for those who desired to eat indoors.

It has been advised that reservations should be made for the weekly dinners which are served from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. each Sunday.

Orinda Cubs Have Grand Finale

In addition to winning the softball league trophy at the Diablo District Cub picnic held Sunday, members of Pack 32 returned home with a number of merit awards presented during their pack meeting held at the school grounds during the day.

The following Orinda Cubs were granted their Webelos, signifying the highest award in cubbing, graduating from cubs and eligibility for scouts: John Barchfield, Don Morrow and Peter Altieri.

Cub fledglings Gerry Gillivan and George Cory were presented with bob cat awards.

Tom Slavens to Tour Europe

Heading for Europe next month are the Tom Slavens, well known former residents of Lafayette.

Mr. and Mrs. Slavens and daughter, Marty, will leave here July 20 for a year's tour of Europe. Their first stop there will be Rotterdam. When they return, they will move to either Lafayette or Orinda. They recently returned from an extended vacation in Mexico.

DOUBLE CELEBRATION

George Navone and Gary Lucas decided to have one big celebration together on their respective birthdays, George being nine and Gary eight. They invited all of their friends and went to the park pool where a delicious weenie roast was thoroughly enjoyed. Guests for the double celebration were Lawrence Lucas, Walter Bumgarner, Gary Biederman, Phil Glaiberman, Bill Shurtleff and Bob Shurtleff, Fred Whitman, Michael Stahle and Martin Smith.

Family Portrait

LIFE IN THIS AREA FINALLY made Northern California boosters out of ex-Southern Californians Mr. and Mrs. Peter A. Veitch, and children, Henry, Nancy and Tommy, who pose for this week's Family Portrait.

by Victorina Willson

Mr. and Mrs. Peter A. Veitch, Tommy, Nancy and Henry are here to meet you today.

The Veitch family moved to Orinda three years ago, but it would have been eight years ago if the war had not come along and disrupted their plans.

The whole family rates swimming as their favorite sport and summer finds them "living" at the Orinda Country Club pool. Tommy is all set to earn his Junior Life Saving Certificate. Tommy is also a Boy Scout and Mr. Veitch is a member of the Boy Scout Committee for Tommy's troop.

Mrs. Veitch was Room Mother for Tommy's sixth grade in the Orinda Mother's Club and with Henry as a member she was active in the Orinda Co-operative Nursery School. As she so aptly put it "We just keep up with the children's activities—from Nursery School through Cubs, then Boy Scouts and with Nancy a Brownie this year our activities will probably include Girl Scout work next year."

Mr. Veitch is part owner and manager of the Venetian Blind Wood Product Company in Berkeley. He is a member of the Berkeley Manufacturers' Association and of Rotary Club there, but does attend Orinda and Lafayette Rotary whenever possible. He is a Scottish Rite Mason and is active in a group that is trying to organize an Orinda Chapter of Masons.

Even though Mr. Veitch was born and spent his early childhood in Oakland, we feel they should both be classed as Southern Californians. They graduated from U.C. L.A. where Mr. Veitch was a Sigma Pi and Mrs. Veitch was a Sigma Kappa. They too met on a "date" while on campus. (Isn't it amazing how most of our "Families" met through school romances?)

Remembering how much he had liked the East Bay Region, Mr. Veitch made his business connections in this area. But Mrs. Veitch confesses that it was only after they moved to Orinda that she became a Northern California booster.

Church Guild Ladies Honored at Luncheon

Mrs. Ida B. Zamloch entertained the ladies of the afternoon and evening Guilds who had worked so hard to make the annual June luncheon of the Community Church a success.

Twenty-eight of the thirty-five workers met for lunch and cards at the Orinda Country Club June 16. Mrs. Bowman and Mrs. Zamloch, chairmen of the luncheon, were surprised and delighted when they were presented with orchids and a lovely handkerchief.

Among those present were the Mesdames F. Hight, Victor Westfield, Harper Wright, Loren Bush, John Dorr, Lance Barden, T. E. Haley, R. B. Muse, B. Randall, Paul Booth, W. R. Krotz, and Mrs. Greenleaf of the afternoon Guild and the Mesdames Arthur Bowman, W. S. Dean, Fred Theile, T. N. Abbott, Stanley Hunn, M. V. Loveland, John Ogden, Henry Harris, W. H. Hoecker, Owen Jones, Dave Coleman, J. H. Schwarck, K. Atkinson and Russell Unsinger.

Bobby Rochester Is 6 Years Old

An out-of-town guest and neighborhood playmates helped Bobby Rochester celebrate his 6th birthday last Friday at his parents' home on Camino Sobrante.

The services of Mrs. Pearl Soderlund, Oakland, specialist in planning decorations for children's parties, resulted in the beautifully appointed circus theme table setting. A miniature circus wagon and horses formed the centerpiece decoration and each child received a little handmade clown favor at his place at the table.

The children played games in the patio and enjoyed the party feast of birthday cake, ice cream and candy.

Those who attended were Scotty McFarland, Charles Ward, Donald Grandberg, Nardy Fontaine, a cousin and out-of-town guests, Brian Reynolds, Jimmy Gilwee, Grigg DeWitt and Bobby's sister, Susie.

School Art Work Sent to Germany

Five pictures by Contra Costa County school children today were on their way to Germany as part of an exhibit of California school art work sponsored by the United States Army.

Students and their subjects are: Barbara Dawson, 14, Acalanes Union High School ninth grade, a spirited portrayal of horses; Janet Peterson, 14, Martinez Junior High School ninth grade, a Martinez scene; Floyd Davis, 5, Concord kindergarten, work with poster paints; Roger Dexter, 12, Orinda Union School sixth grade, Orinda hills, and Katherine Vale, 12, Pinole sixth grade, California orchard scene.

Mrs. Inez H. Smith, school supervisor in charge of the exhibit locally, emphasized that the selection was in no way competitive but was made as representative as was possible in the short time available for preparation.

Arranged by the Southern California Art Teachers Association, the exhibit is being shipped from Los Angeles to Heidelberg for circulation among 300 centers in the American Zone and Berlin as part of the answer to the "insatiable curiosity of every German child about anything that is American."

BETZ GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Betz have as house guests Mr. and Mrs. Pat Train, former Orinda residents, who now live in Auburn.

Gail Hutton Celebrates Birthday with Classmates

Although her birthday is officially Flag Day, June 14, Gail Hutton celebrated her 9th birthday with a group of girl classmates from Vallecito School on Friday. The guests gathered at Gail's home on Terrace Way for an afternoon of games and a barbecue supper served early in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Hutton, their older daughter, Austin who was just promoted from the 7th grade at Lafayette Grammar School, Gail and four-year-old Tommy, left the first part of the week for Balboa Island where they plan to live for the next year.

Mr. and Mrs. William M. Bogart and their twin daughters, Kim and Betty, will occupy the Hutton home while they are away.

Tragic Death of Acalanes Graduate Stuns Community

A sad note was added to post graduation memories last Friday when it became known that Harold Fry, 18, a member of the graduating class at Acalanes High School who had received his diploma less than twelve hours earlier, was killed as the result of a head-on automobile collision on the Tunnel Road one mile south of Orinda Crossroads.

Ted, as the boy was known to his friends, was the younger son of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Fry of Lafayette. Following his graduation he had planned to enter University of California, where his father is backfield football coach.

JEEP DEMOLISHED

Witnesses to the accident said Fry, who was driving a Chevrolet sedan, swerved across the double center line and crashed head-on into a jeep station wagon, demolishing both cars. Occupants of the other car, Samuel Johnson, 51, and Herman Marguardt, 34, of Antioch, were taken to Permanente Hospital with undetermined injuries. The local boy was pronounced dead on arrival at the hospital.

SERVICES HELD MONDAY

Besides his parents, the boy is survived by a brother, James Wesley, and a sister, Meredith Anne. Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at the Chapel of the Oaks, Oakland Mortuary, with interment at Mountain View Cemetery.

All Around

Orinda

TIP TO ORINDA'S SEWER CONTRACTORS: Poor Mrs. Orinda is going nuts trying to find a way to keep the dust from burying her home and everything in it. How about a sprinkler truck wetting down the streets two or three times a day? The ladies will love you for it.

AND A WORD TO THAT SURVEYING CREW laying out the sewer course. Hey you guys, quit cluttering up our rocky roads with paper cups, orange peel and sandwich wrappings.

COUPLE NEW GRIPES being aired this week, and one of them by the smaller fry. Seems that leaving their clothing unguarded in the Park Pool dressing room sometimes leaves them a bit unprepared for public appearances. While some of the kids are in swimming, some other kids throw away their shoes and sox, tie their pants in knots and perform various other kid tricks with the other guys property. Of course you can check your valuables at the office where they're safe enough—but you can't check your pants—and what's more valuable when you want to go home?

AND THE OTHER GRIPES is that "no in-coming telephone service" inaugurated this year at the Park Pool. Used to page a person via loudspeaker when he was wanted on the phone. Not so now—and how come?

POWER OF THE PRESS: It's reported that our mention of the fire department's request that you leave your old papers and magazines at the fire house for disposal resulted in two tons being dumped there already. They urge you to keep on getting rid of them this safe way.

AND THE GRANATHS should have their hall holes filled with green growth by now, thanks to Mrs. Blalock having read of their need in the paper. Andy Blalock, incidentally, true southern gent that he is, is chaperoning a group of birds home from the South.

AND SPEAKING OF BIRDS reminds us that Don Nightengale has returned from his vacation and is back at the Crossroads. And speaking of the Crossroads reminds us that the Casa is losing two of its biggest assets this week. Pat and Tiny have said to heck with thirsty Orindans and will try to satisfy the thirst of Oaklanders in the former La Cantina, 18th Avenue and Park Boulevard. Gone into business for themselves.

THE RED FACES BEING WORN by some of the Kaiser quarry men this week were a sight to behold. Seems that the quarry's gas pumps were filled by mistake with diesel fuel instead of gasoline. Worked alright in the quarry equipment—but those sputtering, smoking private autos were eloquent testimony as to the unsuspected whereabouts of some of the fuel.

TONIGHT AND TOMORROW NIGHT, at Acalanes High, two highly interesting and enjoyable evenings may be spent even though school is closed for the summer. Lila Murphy's Dance Recital gets staged tonight and judging from the sneak preview the Rounder made, is very good. And on Saturday night the Barbershoppers present A Night of Harmony. If you saw last years event, you won't miss this one.

ORINDA PERSONALS: Bummy Bumgarner, all set to lead a double life as bartender and singer at the Tunnel Inn, is doing neither now because of Union trouble. . . . Bill Salvage returned briefly to his old haunts over last week-end—returned to New Mexico taking his family with him. . . . Miss Elisabeth Gray of the Baby Shoppe has been compiling an interesting list of Orinda families with all boys or all girls. And the Bob Cloughs, with the fourth on the way, are hoping to get off the list. They now have 3 boys.

DICK BOUCHER (pronounced boo-shay) has been heard on quiet evenings as far as two miles as he plays a soulful rendition of "Deep Purple" on his sax. What's up Dick, practising for the day the fire house siren fails to function? . . . Mrs. C. B. Liebtage of La Madronal Place amazes us. Hasn't left her house and surrounding grounds in eight years. Keeps well informed via radio and the paper, and is completely happy about the whole thing. Those sixty five steps from the road up to her house may have something to do with Mrs. Liebtage staying at home. They'd keep the Rounder home for the rest of his life.

FLOYD SWANSON, FORMER ORINDA Beauty Shop operator, is building a new home up on El Gavilan. . . . Maynard Buehler, gun sight manufacturer, has taken business space in the Bridwell Bldg. in the Village. And it's rumored that insurance man Keene Petten-gill will do the same. Another "package deal?" (Guns, then insurance!)

WITH THE ORINDA ZONING finally completed and, momentarily, forgotten, we'd like to know what ever happened to that zoning proposal of last year. The one that would zone a strip on both sides of the highway from the tunnel to the crossroads as a parkway, thereby eliminating the future possibility of hamburger stands and billboards lining the road and ruining the Orinda approach.

WITH ORINDANS ALREADY GRIPING like crazy about the amount of taxes they pay—and with a school bond election coming up this Fall, we don't envy members of the School Board who are going to sweat through this summer figuring out ways to get you to approve the bond. And it's the Rounder's hope that because taxes are high, Orinda doesn't get in the habit of voting down all tax issues without considering their worth. As long as Orindans keep on having children they're going to have to keep on improving the schools for them.

HEAR THAT SOME OF THE CHARACTERS at that motorcycle climb last Sunday wound up the day with a knock-down, drag-out free-for-all, apparently a customary procedure. Wonder how long Orindans are going to put up with that nuisance? At least some of them don't now. When the motorcycle mob roared to the cross-roads after their day at the hill-climb, they were met with the keep-going wave of a deputy sheriff. Local pubs didn't want the business the crowd was eager to give.

FUNNIEST SIGHT OF THE WEEK was when young Dave Meyer hopped into the Orinda Store, one foot incapacitated from stepping on a rake, and ordered the biggest watermelon in the place. Bill Wartenweiler got it for him and offered to carry it out to the car. Dave said no thanks, that he would carry it himself, and anyhow he didn't have a car waiting. He was going to take it home on his bike. The disbelief and amazement registered on the rest of the customers was priceless, and all purchasing stopped while Bill persuaded Dave that carrying the largest watermelon the store had was a job for a guy with two legs, both working.

BILL CARRIED THE MELON out to the bike, straightened out the wire cage on it, stowed the watermelon safely therein. To the several spectators who saw the event it's still a mystery as to just how Dave with only one leg working, got the bike going, whether he got home with a whole melon, how he got it and himself off the bike if he got it home, and how in the world he ever got it into the house if he got it off the bike. Aside to Mr. Meyer—Did you really have melon that day? The suspense of wondering about that one legged trip is getting a lot of interested Orindans down.
